Love in This Time

About the artist

Hiroshi Yamazaki began playing classical piano at the age of seven in Osaka, Japan. As a young adult, he attended the Osaka College of Music. It was there where Hiroshi was introduced to jazz, the style of music that would quickly become his passion. At age 22, Hiroshi gave his first professional jazz performance, leading a trio at the popular S.A.B. Hall in Osaka.

Shortly after completing his collegiate studies in Japan, Hiroshi moved to New York City. There, he continued to grow as a musician and a performer. New York allowed Hiroshi to forge his own voice not only as an improviser, but also as a composer and arranger. His New York City performance debut took place in 1988 at the Jazz Center of New York. Also featured at the same show were bassist Paul West and drummer Leroy Williams. Other memorable performances followed, with Hiroshi leading groups at some of the most popular jazz venues in New York City such as the VillageGate, the Bluenote, and Birdland. Hirosh... Love In This Time

Hiroshi Yamazaki(Music)
Alexander Johnson(Lyrics)

The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and a 3/4 time signature. It consists of five staves of music with lyrics underneath. Chord symbols are placed above the notes. The lyrics are: "You are my light My life's de - light Each time I see your face I smile For just a while come live in - side Come share this time in-side my heart How could it be that you and me could ne-ver see that we were mean to be For just a while a li - ttle while come live in side, this time with me Let's go ex - plore a world so free where you can be in love with me".
